Part 1.

1. There are four council districts within Indiana University.
2. The southernmost street on the Downtown Commercial District is 1st Street.

3. The largest body of water within Bloomington itself is Griffy Lake.
4. There are 4 fire hydrants on SPEA’s block.

5. The Old Northeast is the neighborhood home to Nick’s.
Part 2.

1. There are four council districts on the map, with District 3 being the smallest geographically.

2. David and Rebecca Vadas live next door to the Usreys.
3. The tax bill for this parcel is $536.94 annually. The land use for this parcel is tillable, non-tillable, and woodland.
4. The size of Ivy Tech campus (on Parkway) is 16.06 acres.

5. The top three land uses for Monroe County are tillable, non-tillable, and woodland.
GIS Maps

Direct- A map of Monroe County depicting all higher education institutions in the county
Indirect- A map of Monroe County depicting all higher education institutions within 3 miles of a city (incorporated).