Family Analysis

2) When somebody dies in my family, my family member will be sad for quite a bit since we have very good relationships with each other and go out and have gatherings. This is why we will suffer when someone has died in my family.

4) We don’t have a specific job that we have to do and there isn’t a pattern for us, if we are free we will do it, ex. Chores, buying food. We also treat each other equally.

5) Genders does not make any differences in expectations in my family, we respect each other’s decisions as we think that if we put expectations on them, it will make them have too much pressure and they will lose their passion for what they want to do.

6) We do not have any different expectations for a particular member based on age, everyone will have the same type of responsibility and any extra expectations will make any member have added weights on their shoulders.

7) We have no difference in expectations for members base on their birth date, it is solely used to celebrate a birthday, as my family goes out to have dinner to celebrate his/her birthday.

10) We usually help family members to the best of our abilities, we do this because we have strong connections with each other.

11) in my family we have different kinds of professions so we can help each other if one of our members is struggling with a certain thing, some of us are good at computer, some at cooking, some at social, some making plans, it covers a whole variety of professions so we can help our family solve problems.

13) Most of the times, my family spend their leisure times with their own families, although they are very busy, we typically tend to meet at least once a week to have dinner and stay together, In addition to this, we will also go out to travel to different places when we are on vacation. This is how my family spends their leisure time.

14) what I know about my family is that they behave almost the same outside the house and inside the house, they are friendly with other people and very easy going, unless someone has done something horrible to them, they do not hurt or make trouble unless they started it first.

15) There is actually sibling position in my family, I am the youngest in my family as I have 4 cousins that are older than me, they always treat me the best since I was a baby, they would always think about me when they are buying or celebrating things. In times of needs they will try their best to help me, I appreciate what they have done for me.

17) When a crisis hits my family, my family will work together to go get pass the crisis, as we have good relationship with each other and we will always share the same pain and assume the responsibility together.

18) If there was a special success or triumph in the family, we will all be happy for the specific person that got that as he earned it and we always feel proud if someone in the family wins a glory.

21) There is a family theme that I can see in my family and that is, we are a family that has a strong connection with each other and we will not let anyone fall behind when any of us are facing a tough decision, we will always work through any difficulty of challenges together. This is why no one can break the relationship of my family.

24) My family has been affected by a major historical event, this event is a historical event in my country and my family was affected. During 1947, an army moved to Taiwan and there was a huge fighting event between the Taiwan citizens and the army and this caused the government to execute the martial law. This affected our family because this meant that we had no freedom, the martial law caused the citizens to have no rights during that time.

28) My family members do not actually have any characteristics. If there are multiple decisions, we tend to discuss together and then make a final decision. Some specific work will be given to those who have time to do it and at the same time, we usually rotate people who cooks and wash the dishes. This is the reason we don’t have characteristics in our family.
